Storytelling is a means for sharing and interpreting experiences. Peter L. Berger says human life is narratively rooted, humans construct their lives and shape their world into homes in terms of these groundings and memories. Stories are universal in that they can bridge cultural, linguistic and age-related divides.

Joe Pearson | July 21, 2014 - 1:33 PM. In addition to the biases being instilled in the course, one of the most disturbing aspect of it is that the College Board has proudly proclaimed that one of their major objectives in redesigning the course is "to reduce required content across historical periods to allow teachers greater flexibility to teach topics of their choice in depth."
